Dear Valued Customer,

We have assessed our Ply Gem Engineered Composite Roofing business and have made the decision to cease operations. We will continue selling the remaining Ply Gem Engineered Roofing inventory through July 2019. The Ply Gem Engineered Roofing warranty will remain valid for all installed jobs.

Cornerstone Building Brands is committed to growing strategically, increasing operational efficiencies, profitable business transformation and providing you, our customer, with the right solutions to help grow your business. We plan to redirect resources and focus our investment in our key priorities including new product innovation and customer solutions within our core businesses.

Cornerstone Building Brands is dedicated to our core value of innovation and we are looking forward to future advancements. Our focus remains on exceeding your expectations and appreciate your business and continued support. Please direct any questions you may have to your Ply Gem Residential Solutions Sales Manager.

Respectfully,
